SECRET-SERVICE DIVISION,

OFFICE OF CHIEF,

Washington, D. C., Feby 26th, 1880.

A. Louden Snowden Esq.
Director of the Mint.
Philadelphia Pa.

Sir:—

The enclosed five cent nickel coin has been sent in by one of our agents in the West with the statement that it is the production of a counterfeit coin mill in operation there.

I have doubts as to its being a counterfeit, and request that you will cause to be made a careful comparison of the coin with the genuine of that issue, and then place upon record your judgment in the matter.

Very Respectfully,

James J. Brooks

Chief.
